

ATTERBURY – MUSCATATUCK CENTER FOR COMPLEX OPERATIONS

Individual Replacement Deployment Operations (IRDO) – Redeployment Guidance

01 April 2011

REDEPLOYMENT PROCESSING:

Upon return from theater, mobilizing civilians that deployed through the Camp Atterbury IRDO are required to redeploy through Camp Atterbury. Visit the Individual Replacement Deployment Operations program web site listed below for the latest updates available on (IRDO) redeployment requirements, reporting times, transportation, housing and any processing requirements that need to be completed before arrival.

IRDO Web Site:

Redeploying civilians should make contact with us via e-mail distribution at Int-cajmtc-ndc@ng.army.mil 7 days prior to redeploying back to Camp Atterbury, IN. You should email your flight itinerary with your notice. All transportation, billeting and processing will be handled through Camp Atterbury. Please refer back to the IRDO website for the latest updates and changes.

Upon arrival at Indianapolis International Airport, demobilizing civilians should report to the airport USO and call the Camp Atterbury Shuttle service (812-526-1305). After calling, wait for the next scheduled shuttle listed below on Page 2.

Upon arrival to Camp Atterbury during business hours (0700-1800 hours) report to Building 300 and sign in. Then you will be directed to the Demobilization Team Leader. After business hours (1800-0700 hours) report to the Staff Duty at Building 5. You will be housed for the night and you will report to Building 300 at 0800 hours the next business day.

Redeployment processing takes 24 to 72 hours without medical or admin issues. Out-processing involves CIF turn in and Medical/SRC clearance, and Administrative out-processing. Retain all hand receipts for your records.

Complete your Post Deployment Health Assessment online via AKO prior to departing your theater of operation. You do not need to complete any medical exams or send any medical information to us in order to complete the redeployment process.
